OFFERED $5,000 TO CHANGE TESTIMONY

Earl P. Clark, Important Witness Against William D. Shepherd, Testifies at Inquest

THREATS FAIL TO MOVE HIM

Inquiry Into Death of Billy McClintock, Millionaire Orphan, is Resumed at Chicago

Chicago, April 30—Earl P. Clark, an important state witness against William D. Shepherd, testified today that Shepherd's attorney had "filled me up on Scotch whisky and offered me $5,000 to change my testimony."

Clark's testimony came at the resumption of the inquest into the death of Billy McClintock, millionaire orphan.

Shepherd is accused of inoculating the youth with typhoid fever germs in an effort to obtain the McClintock $1,000,000 estate.

"William Scott Stewart, Shepherd's attorney met me in a newspaper office," Clark testified. "He filled me up on Scotch whiskey and offered me $5,000 to change my testimony."

"He said that all I needed to do was to sign an affidavit, denying all I had testified to previously."

"Stewart threatened to prosecute me for an abortion if I refused, but I told him to go ahead—he didn't have anything on me."

Clark, who testified previously at the inquest as the first witness to link Shepherd with Dr. C. C. Fauman, the dapper president of a questionable correspondence medical school, Clark was once an employee at Fauman's "National University of Sciences." As a result of Clark's testimony Fauman was arrested and confessed with giving typhoid germs to Shepherd with instructions as to how they should be administered to McClintock to cause death.

Clark testified today he was induced by a newspaper reporter to go to his office and there he met Stewart and had the conversation regarding the bribe. He said it ended when he offered to fight the attorney and Stewart refused.

State's Attorney Crowe said Stewart went into private practice with W. W. O'Brien as his partner. Shepherd retained both of them to defend him against the murder charge.

INTEREST MANIFESTED IN HEALTH MEETINGS

State Board of Health Workers Well Pleased With Success in This County

LARGE CROWD AT HIGH SCHOOL

Much interest was manifested in the health meetings conducted at Moscow and Homer Wednesday under the auspices of the State Board of Health, infant and child hygiene division. There were twenty-six in attendance at Moscow and twenty-nine in attendance at Homer. Sixty-eight were present at the class held at the high school building last night for the high school girls and members of the high school faculty.

The classes are under the direction of Dr. N. Maude Arthur, lecturer in this county, and L. Evaline Renwick, R. N., who conducts the demonstrations. These two ladies are very much pleased with the success of the meetings in this county.

Today's meetings are being held at the Mays Opera house and at the Jackson township consolidated school building. Friday's meetings will be conducted at the Raleigh gymnasium at one o'clock and at the Gings school building at three o'clock. The ladies in these districts are urged to attend these meetings as many interesting subjects are discussed. The regular Rushville township class for women will be held each Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in the court house assembly room.

THE JOLLY WOODCHOPPER

PRIVATE STOCKS OF LIQUOR IN DANGER

Mere Possession Constitutes Violation of Wright "Bone Dry" Law, R. C. Minton Says

PROVISIONS OF NEW ACT

Federal and Local Authorities Plan to Make State More Arid Than Ever in History

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—The rich man's private stock of choice liquor is endangered by the Wright "bone dry" law, according to the interpretation placed on the law today by R. C. Minton, assistant prohibition director for Indiana.

Mere possession of liquor, no matter in how small a quantity unless it is for sacramental purposes or is pure grain alcohol obtained under prescription, constitutes a violation of the law, Minton pointed out.

Minton declared this provision knocks out the defense offered by owners of private stocks of liquor that they bought it before prohibition.

Numerous wealthy citizens of Indianapolis and Indiana, whose homes have been raided and choice liquor seized, evaded conviction by proving they bought the liquor before prohibition became effective.

"The law does not contemplate that anyone has kept liquor since 1918," Minton said. "The old defense of rich men with a lot of brews in his cellar is a thing of the past."

Rigid enforcement of prohibition in Indiana under provisions of the Wright "bone dry" law were planned today by federal and local authorities.

The law, which became effective with Governor Jackson's proclamation, will make the state more arid than at any time in its history, is the opinion of dry agents.

"The new sections making it unlawful to purchase or possess intoxicating liquor will be highly effective in mopping up wet places," Bert Morgan, federal prohibition director for Indiana, said.

"Lists of customers of bootleggers will be evidence, since purchase of liquor carries a penalty. Provisions of the new law on the sale of liquor by druggists under the new law is the same as under the old law and no trouble is anticipated from that source."

Under the old law federal agents could raid a home only where there

YOUNG MAN FINDS THAT JUSTICE WORKS RAPIDLY

Edward Cox, 21, Taken to Reformatory Within 24 Hours After Attempting to Sell Stolen Corn

HAS BEEN IN COURT BEFORE

Edward Cox, age 21, found justice worked rapidly in the Rush circuit court, and today he is at Pendleton serving a term of one to eight years on a petit larceny charge.

Cox was arrested as he was attempting to sell some corn, and aroused suspicions of the officers, who detained him. Thomas Chambers, living south of Rushville, reported the theft of some corn, and when Cox was confronted with the charge, he admitted his guilt.

The theft took place Tuesday, according to the affidavit, and the sale was being made Wednesday when he was arrested. This morning when he was arraigned he pleaded guilty, and was taken at once to the reformatory at Pendleton to begin serving his sentence.

Cox has a record in the local court, having been convicted here once on a charge of encouraging delinquency of a minor, being implicated at the time with Mamie Wee and her brother.

PROBABLE TRIAL DATE IS SET

J. D. Williams and Four Others May be Tried Second Week in June

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—John D. Williams, director of the state highway commission, and four others under indictment on a charge of embezzlement in the disposal of war material by the highway body, probably will go to trial the second week in June.

This was announced today by Judge Collins in criminal court after a conference with attorneys for the indicted men. The attorneys asked for an immediate trial but Judge Collins had to refuse their request because eight murder cases and the case of D. C. Stephenson, charged with murder for the death of Miss Madge Oberholzer, are already docketed.

TWO DAMS BREAK

Clementen, New Jersey, April 30—Flood waters caused by yesterday's rain, caused two dams to break in lakes above here today, inundating parts of the town and flooding basements. No fatalities or serious injuries were reported.

STEPHENSON KEEPS MOVES IN THE DARK

No Intimation of What Will Take Place When Bail Hearing Opens Friday in Indianapolis

BOTH HAVE LINES DRAWN

Believed Defense Will Contend Averments of Indictment Insufficient to Warrant Charge

BULLETIN

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Appearing unexpectedly in criminal court this afternoon, Eph Inman, attorney for D. C. Stephenson, Earl Klenek and Earl Gentry, withdrew his plea to release the three men on bail, pending trial on a murder charge for the death of Miss Madge Oberholzer.

Inman gave no reason for his unexpected action and the motion to withdraw the bail plea was approved by Judge Collins.

Rumors had been current about the court house that one of Stephenson's aides had promised to turn state's evidence. Prosecutor Remy did not confirm the report.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—All moves were being kept in the dark today by the defense in the bail hearing of D. C. Stephenson and his two aides Earl Klenek and Earl Gentry charged with the murder of Miss Madge Oberholzer who took poison following an alleged attack.

Both state and defense had its lines drawn in readiness for the hearing which will open tomorrow before Judge James A. Collins in the Marion criminal court.

Eph Inman, attorney for the defense, refused to give any indication of the grounds upon which he will base his contention that the men should be admitted to bail.

It is believed, however, that he will contend the averments of the indictment are not sufficient to justify a first degree murder charge. It is believed he will also contend that the statement by Miss Oberholzer upon which the indictments were based was made when she was in a poor physical and mental condition.

According to Miss Oberholzer's story she was attacked by Stephenson on a sleeeing car between Indianapolis and Hammond. Following the attack she took poison and the defendant refused her medical aid she alleged.

A record crowd is expected at the hearings which is expected to continue more than one day at least.

The curtain will rise at eight o'clock tonight at the Graham Annex auditorium on the first performance of "The New Coed," the second play presented this school year by the seniors of Rushville high school. Spectators at rehearsals have been enthusiastic over the play and believe that a treat is in store for those who attend. It will be repeated Friday night.

About thirty seniors will take part in "The New Coed," which is a French royalty play in four acts. Coaching has been in charge of Miss Hamrick of the high school faculty and Mrs. Pauline Swain. Furniture and lamps to be used in the setting will be provided by George Todd. Plenty of good seats for either performance can be reserved at Pitman and Wilson's.

NO CHARGE TO BE MADE AGAINST WOMAN DRIVER

Mrs. Lowell Beach of Arlington Makes Satisfactory Explanation For Failing to Stop

MACHINE HIT SMALL BOY

Mrs. Lowell Beach of Arlington, driver of the machine which struck John Gantner age 6, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wingerter, was here Wednesday evening after being summoned by Police Chief Blackburn. No charges will be preferred against her, it is said.

The boy was attempting to cross the street when struck by the machine, and the driver failed to stop. The car was traced by the license number.

Mrs. Beach stated that she became frightened after striking the boy, and when she saw him get up and run away, she did not think that he was injured, and she continued to drive the machine, and did not stop. The boy was not seriously hurt, but suffered bruises and shock, and because the driver did not stop, a request was made to police to locate the woman. She was here Wednesday night at the Wingerter home, and made satisfactory explanations, it is said, and the matter is expected to be dropped.

HEADS SECURITIES BODY

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Secretary of State Schortemeier today announced the assignment of David Jennings of Indianapolis as state securities commissioner, as provided under the new "blue sky" law, which became effective yesterday. Jennings' salary is $3,500 annually. For some time he was assistant securities director under the old law. He formerly lived in Newcastle.

CARTHAGE PLANT TO BE SOLD ON MAY 18

Petition Approved in Local Court and Similar Action Will be Taken in Federal Court

NUMBER OF BIDS EXPECTED

Proposal to Sell Will Not Interfere with Reorganizations, But Makes Bidding Competitive

A petition for permission to sell the plant of the American Paper Products company plant at Carthage, similar to one which has been approved in the Rush circuit court, was to be presented in the federal court in St. Louis today, and according to the best information here, it will be approved and nothing will stand in the way of plans to receive sealed bids for the real estate, buildings and machinery of the corporation, which is in receivership.

The receiver, John A. Tittsworth of Rushville and Ley P. Rexford of St. Louis, the latter having been appointed in federal court at St. Louis, because the concern is a St. Louis corporation, will receive sealed bids at one o'clock on May 18, and from day to day thereafter, providing the bid or bids are not acceptable, will offer the property at private sale.

The order to sell will not interfere with the organization plan of the creditors of the company, it is stated, but the Indiana law provides that property which has been in the hands of a receiver shall be sold, and this opens the way for competitive bidding.

The creditors who prepared a plan by which they hoped to bring the corporation out of its financial difficulties, will thus be thrown in competition with others which may want the plant.

It is reported that at least one other company will make a bid in accordance with the terms of the court order, so that there does not now seem to be any doubt about the future of the plant.

The Carthage works has three paper making machines with a capacity of approximately 100 tons of product per day and a practically new box board factory is operated in connection with the plant.

The buildings, real estate and equipment are valued at $1,500,000 and the machinery is in good running order, insuring immediate operation of the business if a satisfactory bid is received.

The principal debt of the company is a $400,000 mortgage, a suit to foreclose which was recently filed in the Rush circuit court. It is said that this suit will be withdrawn in order to permit a clear sale of the factory.

SLIGHT CLEW TO SOLVE MURDER AT CHESTERTON

Scrap of Paper and Upper Part of Woman's Stocking New Evidence Police Have

GARY MAN RELEASED AGAIN

(By United Press)

Gary, Ind., April 30—A charred scrap of paper bearing the name H. Schmidt and the upper part of a woman's stocking were the only new clues in the hands of the police today to help them in their attempts to solve the Chesterton murder mystery.

The scrap of paper was found in the mud of the shore, some distance from where the dismembered and charred remains of the girl were found. The name was written in ink. The half of the stocking was found in a swamp lake near the scene of the tragedy which is still being dragged in the belief that it contains the legs and right arm torn from the torso.

The mangled body was found last Sunday and has since been veiled in deepest mystery. Thomas Sweeney of Gary has twice been taken into custody and twice released, the last time when his wife, who had disappeared, was fully accounted for. A woman's slipper, found nearby and a pair of spectacles, which police believe belonged to one of the murderers, are the only other clues on which police are working.

MOTHER'S SACRIFICE PROVES UNAVAILING

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Her sacrifices made in vain, Mrs. Oda Green returned to her home in Riley, Ind., to bury her son, Mayo, 18. In a last desperate effort to save the youth's life, the mother gave blood for a transfusion yesterday at the Methodist hospital, where he was dying from complication that developed after an appendicitis operation.

The blood transfusion failed to aid him and he died a short time later.

PLEAS OF LENIENCY UNAVAILING

Judge Refuses to Lessen Sentence When Church Members Ask it

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Pleas of church members for Special Judge Johnson in city court here to lessen the sentence punishment of James Crane, 37, local attorney for larceny and obtaining money under false pretense went unheeded today.

Crane was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to one to seven years in the Indiana State farm.

He is alleged to have sold bogus mortgages to Adolph Strauss, here, which he claimed was on local property.

Subject For Study At Tonight's Prayer Meeting

The subject for study at the United Presbyterian church tonight is "The Spirit's Message to the Church at Ephesus." It is found in Rev. 2:1-7.

In this meeting the questions asked and the topics suggested are to come from the congregation and the pastor is expected to find the answer. Thus the subjects for discussion are, What are the first works that must be done? What is the first love which the pastor of the Ephesian Church had left? What is the "Tree of Life" referred to? And the "Golden Candlestick," what is it? Is the argument, in the case of "The Angel of this church," one that supports backsliding to the extent of falling from grace? Then one asks that the contract be drawn between the Ephesian church and the Church today.

Come with a question or a topic and be ready to give or to receive help, the pastor of the church urges. The meeting is at 7:30 o'clock.

"Let's Go to California"

Every day some tired, prosperous or otherwise travel-inclined man says to his wife, "Let's go to California!" And such is the power of advertising that, although neither of them may ever have proximately what it will cost, and where they will be there before, they know just how to go, apartment to stay.

The same with anything you may need or want. You already know all about it, by whom it is made, what it costs, and where it is for sale. Advertising in the afternoon papers is the modern intelligencer. It keeps you informed, advises you of new things, suggests new uses for articles you already own, and prepares you today for wise and useful purchases tomorrow.

It does all this for you, almost unconsciously, during the half-hour or so you spend each day with your newspaper. Little by little — the best and surest way to learn — advertising makes you informed of what is going on in the world that is useful to you.

Read the advertisements. Get ready for tomorrow

QUESTIONS FOR MAHENDRA MUST BE IN REPUBLICAN OFFICE FRIDAY P. M.

Mahendra, who is puzzling the people of this community by answering all sorts of questions about the past, present and future, today gave written replies to a number of inquiries that were received by the Daily Republican. A large number of questions were received during the day and they will be answered in Friday's edition.

Mahendra is giving citizens of Rushville and vicinity an opportunity to clear up in their minds things that have mystified them in the past, or that which is worrying them now. He also answers perplexing problems of the future.

Have you lost anything? Do you expect money? Do you want to hear from lost relatives? Do you want to know if your sale of property will be successful? Ask Mahendra, either through the columns of the Daily Republican or at the Castle theatre, where he is appearing each night.

The Daily Republican does not guarantee the accuracy of answers given by Mahendra, but is giving readers an opportunity to seek a solution to their problems if they desire to.

All questions to be answered through the Daily Republican must be in the office by Friday afternoon. None will be answered after that time. A special matinee for women only will be given Friday. Answers to questions submitted today are as follows:

F. B.—Will I consider a business career?

Ans.—A business career would be most successful for you and you are inclined to consider such a course, even this year. I am of the opinion that marriage will interfere with your plans.

W. K.—You are asking if you will ever go with the one you are thinking of. If her initials are M. B. I am quite sure you will and very soon.

Mrs. L. A. S.—How long will my husband remain at his present position.

Ans.—Until this fall. He will go into business shortly after the first of the year. There will be a partner in the enterprise.

W. B.—You are asking if you will succeed with your intended vocation. Yes, but you are apt to be inclined to change your plans this summer. I would avoid doing so.

F. H. A.—I can not tell you the name of the party who robbed your home as there is not enough evidence to convict the person.

G. W.—You will be most successful in following the vocation you have been considering.

E. M. E.—Can you locate my lost gloves?

Ans.—I am of the opinion that you left them in Indianapolis while you were shopping last week. Inquire of the lady at the yard goods counter where you were considering a purchase. I believe she will remember you and help you to recover them.

B. M. B.—The uncle that you are looking for is in Los Angeles, California. I do not see a marriage for you within the next two years.

R. C.—You are worried about your present position. I am quite sure your employer appreciates your efforts more than you think. You will meet with success and an advancement is in store for you this fall. You will take a vacation trip to Michigan this fall.

LOOKING FORWARD TO NEXT YEAR'S ELECTION

Election of Republican Senators and House Members is of Paramount Importance

URGE USE OF COMMON SENSE

(Special to The Daily Republican)

Washington, April 30—The Coolidge administration is looking forward to next year's senatorial and congressional election with special interest. The election of Republican Senators and House members is recognized as of paramount importance to the administration. Nothing would be so embarrassing to the success of President Coolidge's administration as the election of a Congress of the opposite political faith. Common sense, it is urged, calls for the election of Senators and House members of the same political party as that of the President. The fact that the Democratic party is overrun with strife and bitterness is one reason that the Republicans should carry the 1926 congressional and senatorial elections. The big reason the Republicans should win is that the people have faith in Coolidge and would not want to do anything that would embarrass his administration, for it is recognized that the success of the administration is good for everybody.

Naturally, the administration has a special interest in the political fortunes of Senator Curtis, Kansas, the Republican floor leader; Senator Watson, Indiana, assistant leader and chairman of one of the most important committees, and Senator Butler, Massachusetts, chairman of the Republican national campaign and hailing from the President's home state. Since these three senators are among the most conspicuous leaders and supporters of Coolidge policies, their failure to be elected would be interpreted as a slap at the President. It is taken for granted that all three will be nominated without opposition.

was evidence of a sale. With the Wright law in effect they can enter to get evidence of possession provided they are accompanied by state officers or if they are deputized as constables.

Under the Wright law any one carrying liquor in his pocket may be searched if there is evidence apparent that the liquor is there.

Morgan said the prohibition department does not plan a wholesale invasion of homes but that careful investigation will be made before search warrants are taken out for a raid.

In Indianapolis police and detectives propose to enforce the new law to the letter.

"The Wright law will make the task of prohibition enforcement easier," Captain Paulsen said.

LEGION TO HOLD 6TH ANNUAL MEET

Members of Legion to be Guests of Culver Military Academy at Conference Saturday and Sunday

PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Saturday Afternoon Will be Devoted to Recreation With Academy Facilities at Disposal

Indianapolis, Ind., April 29—The program for the sixth annual conference of the Indiana department of the American Legion at Culver Military Academy next Saturday and Sunday was announced today by Frank H. Henley, adjutant of the department.

Members of the Legion who attended the conference will be guests of the Academy, which has entertained this conference annually since 1920, the next year after the state department was organized.

James A. Drain, the national commander, will attend the Sunday session and will address the meeting in the afternoon. On Saturday night the junior boxing championships of the Indiana-Kentucky A. A. U. are to be held at the Academy and the visitors will be special guests.

Saturday afternoon will be largely devoted to recreation and sports, with all the facilities of the Academy at the disposal of the veterans. The mounts of the Black Horse Troop will be available for the ex-cavalrymen and others who wish to take a gallop.

The "gobs" will have an opportunity to get back on the bounding main by embarking with an excursion party on Lake Maxinkuckee, the cutters and wherries of the Culver Summer Naval School fleet serving as men-o-war. Tennis, golf, swimming and baseball are also on the program.

The conference will open at 11 o'clock Saturday morning with a message of welcome by Brig. Gen. L. R. Gignallat, superintendent of the Academy and a past state commander. Sunday afternoon the Legionnaires will place a wreath in the Culver alumni memorial and witness exhibition drills and a dress parade by the Culver corps of cadets.

Could she earn her own living?

SHE'S your daughter—and perhaps you hate to think of her having to work for a living.

But this sort of thing does happen to very nice families—and too often the girl is utterly unprepared for any well-paid occupation. So she takes a poorly-paid job as sales girl, waitress or clerk.

It's different when there is a Corona in the home. A child who has learned to use Corona Four, with its standard office keyboard, can operate any office machine—and you've provided her with the best kind of an insurance policy against the day when she may be forced to support herself.

The price of Corona Four is $60 cash. Easy terms arranged if desired. Call or phone for a demonstration.

The "Bone Dry" Law

Indiana now has a "bone dry" law. It became effective with the proclamation of Governor Jackson declaring in effect all laws passed by the last legislature which did not contain an emergency clause.

This law provides the implements by means of which liquor can be outlawed in Indiana, but it will not enforce itself. It may well never have been passed if peace officers do not study its provisions and learn what powers they have under its terms.

All of the laws in the world are not going to correct the conditions at which they are aimed, if the enforcement officers do not endeavor to see that violators are brought to book.

Under the new law, officers may raid a place to get evidence of the unlawful possession of liquor if they have reason to believe the law is being violated. The old law provided they could enter a home only where there was evidence of a sale. It would be improper, of course, for officers to carry on wholesale raiding of homes, but an officer of the law should have some very good ideas about places where liquor is probably kept.

The Wright "bone dry" law also makes the purchaser of liquor equally guilty with the seller, which should have some effect in reducing the sale of liquor.

Keep Up The Morale

We have had a clean-up week in Rushville. That does not signify that cleaning should be confined to one week. It should go on and on all summer for cleaning is a progressive movement.

A lie and a promise, the winter's collection of debris hauled away, and then complacently forgetting all about it—that is not a spring clean-up in any sense of the word.

If the morale of the home owner weakens, if the maintenance of spot and spen premises is neglected, the one week's spring clean-up is little less than worthless.

While nature is putting on her summer clothes is the proper time to get in the best work, but any withdrawal from a standard set during

New England Thoroughness

A New England man with an idea has been a main factor in growth of Los Angeles. A. G. Arnoll, secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, went to that organization from New England. He deliberately set out to secure industries for Southern California. Coming from an industrial section of the country, he realized that payrolls were the rock foundation upon which to build permanent community prosperity.

His ideas have borne fruit. In a little over three years 4,000 new industries have been located in Los Angeles. His systematic program to encourage industrial development can be followed by any city which seeks permanent growth and prosperity. But it takes work and lots of it as can be testified to by Mr. Arnoll and his corps of assistants who keep in constant touch with thousands of prospective industries over the world which they try to interest in coming to Southern California.

"His wife won't work and the poor fellow has to take in washing."

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Washington isn't exactly a vicious city. That is to say, it isn't tough. It isn't hard and cruel, like New York. It isn't desperate and dangerous, like San Francisco. Outside the prohibition enforcement service, the thug doesn't flourish here. And yet it can't be said that Washington is good. It undoubtedly is the most irresponsible city in the country. Not that it means anything very wrong. It simply doesn't care. Nearly everybody here is away from home, with little or nothing to do, and interested almost exclusively in having a good time. These are ideal conditions for Satan's purposes and he makes the most of them.

WHAT'S become of the Scott divorce case, at Alpena, Mich.? The testimony in the case told the story of life in Washington with beautiful accuracy. Not everybody's life, of course. But it was very characteristic of the "smart set," which, in proportion to Washington's population, is about ten times the size of any other American city's "smart set."

There isn't much depth to its moral turpitude—just the whole outfit bent on fun and excitement, and the devil take the consequences! This isn't assuming that Congressman Scott did all the things his wife said he did, or that his complaints of Mrs. Scott necessarily were well founded. Only both versions did sound so like Washington.

BUT anyway what's become of the Scott case? Washington was enjoying it immensely when they finished the first reel and is mighty anxious to see the second one start. What Washington's afraid of is that there won't be any second one.

However, that statement that Washington was "enjoying it" needs to be qualified a little. Not quite all Washington. The Washingtonians whose names were mentioned didn't like it a bit. And when Mrs. Scott announced she wasn't half through, the probabilities are that quite a few more had cold shivers. At any rate, it's been guessed, again and again, that a lot of pressure would be brought to have the rest of the performance censored.

The surmise now is that it will be postponed and postponed and postponed on into eternity, which will be extremely disappointing to all Washingtonians except those who were, or were afraid they were going to be, sideswiped by it.

VICE PRESIDENT DAWES seems to be making a hit with his demand for a new set of Senate rules, to hurry up business. At all events, he gets plenty of applause when he discusses the question in after-dinner speeches. But that isn't the same thing as inducing the senators to change their own rules.

What the vice president forgets, maybe, is that he's speaking for the present Washington administration, which naturally wants rules that will enable it to get favorable action on its policies, but that the administration lacks a Senate majority.

THE Republicans have a majority, yes, if everybody counts as a Republican who calls himself one, but the administration, no—it's half a dozen short of a majority. The very fact that the administration wants the rules changed is a sufficient reason why this Senate won't change them. Neither will the next Senate, if there's anything in political prophecy.

AFTER careful investigation, the agriculture department announces that very few women ever heard of more than two ways of cutting steaks and that a majority never heard of more than one kind of roast. The trouble is, they all know the same kinds and ask for them. Result, there's a tremendous demand for those few kinds and the rest of the meat goes into the discard. The department suggests that housewives post up on meat cuts, in the interest both of variety and economy.

BROOKLYN CLUB BE PUT ON BLOCK

Many Prospective Buyers Mentioned
for Second Best Franchise in National League

EBBERTS ESTATE TO SELL

Col. Huston, Half Owner of Yankees,
and George M. Cohan Among Probable Purchasers

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 30—Brooklyn's new National League franchise, the most valuable in the league next to the Giants, probably will be sold as the result of the death of Edward McKeever, the second president of the club to die within two weeks.

Stephen McKeever, who held a half interest in the club with his brother, is now the only living owner and he is 71 years old. It is very doubtful that he will care to assume the responsibilities of an owner as he has been little more than a silent partner in the business.

Following the death of Charles H. Ebbetts, it was reported that the McKeever brothers would buy his holdings in the club and become the sole owners. It is understood now that the Ebbetts estate cannot take over the other half interest in the team and that it will be sold.

Many prominent New York sportsmen have been mentioned as probable purchasers.

Some time ago it was reported that Col. T. L. Huston, former half owner of the New York Yankees was willing to buy the franchise but Ebbetts refused to consider any offer. When Huston left the Yankees the terms of sale to Col. Jake Ruppert were said to bind Huston to a promise not to become interested in another New York club. This may have applied only to the Giants however.

Col. Huston, if he should take over the Brooklyn club, probably would give an interest to Wilbert Robinson, manager of the club, who has been his bosom friend for years. George M. Cohan, prominent theatrical man and a great baseball fan is also being mentioned as a purchaser. He has been wanting to get into baseball for years and now has the opportunity as his theatrical activities have been curtailed greatly.

George M. Loft, millionaire candy manufacturer and a member of the state racing commission is said to be looking for a baseball club and he could find no better investment than the Brooklyn club.

Since 1918 the owners of the Brooklyn team have made a small fortune. The team has patronage almost as good as the New York Giants and the property upon the ball field is located in one of the most valuable in the residential section of Flatbush. It was reported after the death of Ebbetts that the McKeever brothers were looking for another site for a new and larger park, and that they would tear down the stadium and sell the ground for building purposes.

New York—Continued improvement in the condition of Babe Ruth was reported at St. Vincent's hospital today. It is not known positively when he will be discharged, but officials of the Yankees practically have given up hope of having him in the lineup on the first western trip.

May Amend Amateur Rules

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 30—That old amateur question, which has been causing such a rumpus in tennis circles for a year or more will bob up next month to bother track and field sports when the International Olympic Committee meets at Prague.

Since Sweden has admitted its willingness to compensate amateur athletes for the time they lose from their regular occupation while they are competing in amateur meets, the international committee has been preparing for the discussion of a subject that will have much to do with the future of athletics.

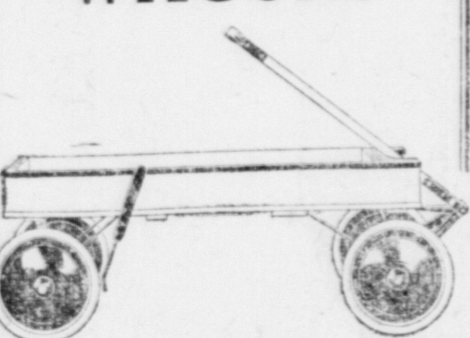

By insisting that there is only one way to be an amateur, the American delegates will open themselves to charges that they are speaking from a fat pocketbook and not from a pure athletic heart. Foreign athletes have the idea that all the American boys are rich and that even a workman can go to his boss with:

"I made the Olympic team and I'm going to be gone for two months. Send half my pay-check to me and keep the rest until I come back."

Such a condition of affairs is silly however, as every one knows in this country. Several instances have happened where employers refused to grant a leave of absence even without pay to athletes in their employ who could have made the Olympic teams.

There were also Dick Landon, the former Olympic high-jump champion and Willie Plant, one of the world's greatest walkers, who declined an appointment on the Olympic team last summer because they couldn't afford to make the trip. They were sure point-winners, but they were left at home. There is no case on record where sure point-

New Standard Six Coach

f. o. b. factory
[with full-size balloon tires]

STUDEBAKER has $60,000,000 invested in plants in which Studebaker cars are manufactured complete, including all bodies, both open and closed. No other large automobile manufacturer that we know of makes all of his own bodies.

This means that Studebaker saves the profit of outside parts makers and body-builders. Thus the price of this new coach is not burdened by an extra profit. At $1295 it represents a value no other automobile manufacturer can equal.

And no other manufacturer can offer a coach of such fine quality at the price. For every coach that Studebaker builds carries with it traditions of fine craftsmanship that have existed in Studebaker plants since 1852.

Compare this coach with other cars which sell at much higher prices. This will prove that Studebaker values are unequalled.

Cloudiness and Rainfall Prevent any Damage Being Done

Indianapolis, Ind. April 30—Frost in Indianapolis and most of Indiana was prevented by cloudiness and rainfall Wednesday night, according to weather bureau reports today.

There is a possibility that the weather will clear tonight and be followed by a damaging frost, the weather bureau announced.

Temperatures continued several degrees below normal for this time of year, the lowest temperature in Indianapolis being 38 degrees at 5 a. m.

MAINTAIN WATER & LIGHT PLANT—I promise to maintain the Water and Light Plant as a City owned plant, with rates as low as is consistent with the service given and the proper operation of the plant, and to fight any attempt of any person to do away with the plant as a city plant and sell it to private individuals.

TAXES—I promise that I will personally investigate each and every proposal which would increase taxes, and oppose those that are not absolutely necessary for the benefit of the city, and to see that taxes collected, are properly expended, and that the citizens of Rushville receive full value for every dollar of their money so expended and to see that taxes are, at all times, kept to the lowest possible limit.

Conquer That Cold

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 211

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

The insidious working of a "common cold" is its most dangerous aspect. A cold is bad enough — worse is the apprehension as to how it may develop, since influenza, bronchitis, coughs and even tuberculosis are possibilities in the background.

The reason for this is that a "cold" is not properly a disease or an illness, but a premonitory symptom of a run-down condition—a warning that a deadly draught is brewing within the laboratory of the body.

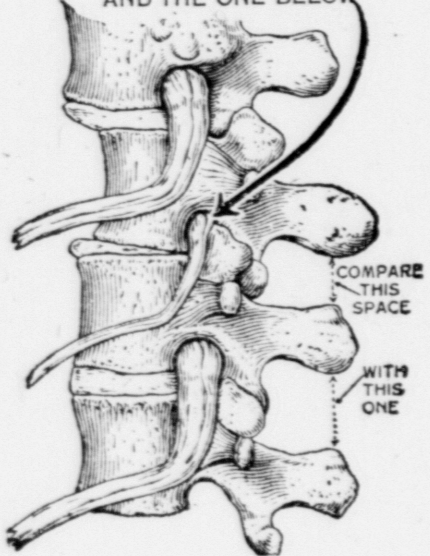

This can happen only when the physical structure is out of normal condition. Specifically — a spinal segment is pressing upon a nerve; the nerve is failing to deliver vital energy to its destination and trouble is in the making.

There is one right way to rectify this condition and that is by making use of our Health Service.

Tuberculosis Threatens;
Chiropractic Corrects;

"About six weeks ago I took a heavy cold which gradually grew worse until within a month it developed into a bad case of the grip and pleurisy and there was danger of tuberculosis. Under medicine I kept getting worse until I was advised to see a Chiropractor. Under skillful adjustments I immediately commenced to improve and within a few days was able to go to work. I kept on improving until now, two weeks later, I am entirely well." — Howard Luck, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2101-N.

FINAL CHAPTER IN GARY BOOZE CASE

Five Former City Officials and Attorneys of City Surrendered to U. S. Marshal

SENTENCED TO PRISON

Twenty Six Others Were to Report to Marshall and Begin Their Terms in County Jail

Indianapolis, April 30—The final chapter has been written in the Gary booze conspiracy case, one of the most sensational cases that has been heard in federal district court here in recent years.

Five former city officials and attorneys of Gary surrendered to the United States marshal and started to the federal prison in Atlanta, where they will serve sentences of from one year to eighteen months imprisonment.

Twenty-six others reported to the marshal during the day and began their terms of from thirty days to six months in the Marion county jail.

The prisoners taken to Atlanta were Roswell O. Johnson, former mayor, Dwight Kinder and Clyde Hunter, former prosecutors of Lake county, L. E. Barnes, former president of the Gary board of works, and Blaz Lucas, an attorney.

Johnson will do eighteen months in Atlanta. The others will serve a year and a day.

Along with eleven others, the thirty-one who started their terms were convicted in federal court in April, 1923, of participation in a gigantic conspiracy to defeat the national prohibition laws in Lake county and Gary.

Litigation in the case was ended this month, when the United States supreme court overruled the appeals of the last of the thirty-one who carried their fight to the higher courts.

GUARD INCREASED AT HINDENBURG'S VILLA

Precautions Taken Following Rumors of Attempt to Assassinate the Field Marshal

DENIAL OF PLOT IS MADE

(By United Press)

Berlin, April 30—Police guards were increased today around President-elect Hindenburg's villa at Hanover giving rise to rumors of an attempt to assassinate the field marshal.

Emphatic denial of knowledge of any plot was made at police headquarters where it was said the additional guards were to assist in keeping off enthusiastic demonstrators.

Chancellor Luther, who conferred with Hindenburg on "important matters of state" yesterday, announced this afternoon that the government's foreign policy would remain unchanged and that he would continue efforts to bring about a safety pact with the allies.

Pursuing their policy of endeavoring to stir up the workers against Hindenburg, the German communists today issued a proclamation, calling upon all to quit work in factories and shops Friday—May day.

The proclamation reiterated yesterday's demands, but apparently the communists are attempting to profit by a well established continental custom. They call upon the workers to take Friday off, as a protest against the "Hindenburg evening. Covers were laid for Miss Ruth Buck of Lake Charles, La., Howard and Franklin Hinshaw of Dunreith and Miss Fern McBride.

system," knowing well that the first of May is a day when few of the working class refrain from taking a holiday.

STATE'S WATER RATE BELOW NATION'S RATE

Statement Made in Survey Reported
Before American Water Works
Association Meeting

BASED UPON QUESTIONNAIRES

Louisville, Ky., April 30—The average water rate in Indiana is below that of the nation.

This statement was made in a survey reported today before the American Water Works association in convention here by George W. Fuller of New York city.

Fuller made his report as chairman of the standardization council of the association and based it upon questionnaires sent to all water companies or departments in cities of 15,000 or over. Replies were received from 294 cities.

The national average rate a thousand gallons for the first 7,500 gallons a month is twenty-six cents while the Indiana average is 25.4 cents.

Large industrial users of water in Indiana fare better than large users elsewhere, the report stated.

A million gallons of water outside Indiana on an average, costs $121.03, whereas hotels and factories in Indiana buy the same supply for $109.11.

Sullivan—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dudley of Sullivan, arriving here from Los Angeles, reported that, while passing through Missouri, an infuriated horse crashed into their automobile, almost knocking it off the road and caused considerable damage.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Hill Billy" is a tonic for the jaded motion picture appetite. It is a simple story of a simple day that will stick with audiences as long as motion pictures are shown.

Jack Pickford has come back as the ragged, yet dominant boy of the Kentucky hills. Garbed in his tattered mountain-boy clothing he is the daring, adventuresome, lovable youth of the backwoods.

There aren't any risqué situations, or suggestive episodes in Jack's latest Allied Producers and Distributors' Corporation release. It is a picture of the great American out-of-doors. The characters are real and genuine. Lucille Rickson, who supports Jack, as Emory Lou, is the sweet and demure maid of the hills who brings romance into the life of a lonesome boy. Miss Rickson, who is famed as Hollywood's youngest leading woman, rises to the height of her dramatic pinnacle in this picture.

Doris Kenyon at Princess

Endless days and nights of steady rain; a tropical fever that racks the body and befuddles the mind—would all this be enough to kill the spark of love of a husband for his wife? This interesting situation arises in "If I Marry Again," which will be the first National attraction at the Princess theatre today. The story concerns a young man who is sent to a tropical isle by his father because of his marriage to an "undesirable" girl, in the hope that his love will die and that he will return to his father, Doris Kenyon. Anna Q. Nilsson, Lloyd Hughes and Hobart Bosworth are in the cast.

Alexandria—Authorities here have declared war on unlicensed dogs. Thirty carcasses of dogs shot while roaming the streets were burned last week.

AFTER BABY WAS BORN

Mrs. Miles Was Miserable a Long Time—Owes Final Recovery to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dover, Ohio.—"After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had washed a heavy carpet and I think that was the cause of my troubles. I went to several doctors, but their medicines did not do me any good. I asked what the trouble was, for I could hardly walk and always had such pains in my left side and then in my right side. He told me I had inflammation that caused it. I had one of your text-books and was reading it, and I thought I would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After four days of taking it I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That helped me more than any other medicine I had yet taken and I always have it handy now. It surely did put me on my feet again."—Mrs. JAMES MILES, 419 Cherry Street, Dover, Ohio.

OFFERED $5,000 TO CHANGE TESTIMONY

Earl P. Clark, Important Witness
Against William D. Shepherd,
Testifies at Inquest

THREATS FAIL TO MOVE HIM

Inquiry Into Death of Billy McClintock, Millionaire Orphan, is Resumed at Chicago

Chicago, April 30—Earl P. Clark, an important state witness against William D. Shepherd, testified today that Shepherd's attorney had "filled me up on Scotch whisky and offered me $5,000 to change my testimony."

Clark's testimony came at the resumption of the inquest into the death of Billy McClintock, millionaire orphan.

Shepherd is accused of inoculating the youth with typhoid fever germs in an effort to obtain the McClintock $1,000,000 estate.

"William Scott Stewart, Shepherd's attorney met me in a newspaper office," Clark testified. "He filled me up on Scotch whiskey and offered me $5,000 to change my testimony."

"He said that all I needed to do was to sign an affidavit, denying all I had testified to previously."

"Stewart threatened to prosecute me for an abortion if I refused, but I told him to go ahead—he didn't have anything on me."

Clark, who testified previously at the inquest as the first witness to link Shepherd with Dr. C. C. Faiman, the dapper president of a questionable correspondence medical school, Clark was once an employee at Faiman's "National University of Sciences." As a result of Clark's testimony Faiman was arrested and confessed with giving typhoid germs to Shepherd with instructions as to how they should be administered to McClintock to cause death.

Clark testified today he was induced by a newspaper reporter to go to his office and there he met Stewart and had the conversation regarding the bribe. He said it ended when he offered to fight the attorney and Stewart refused.

State's Attorney Crowe said Stewart went into private practice with W. W. O'Brien as his partner. Shepherd retained both of them to defend him against the murder charge.

PRIVATE STOCKS OF LIQUOR IN DANGER

More Possession Constitutes Violation of Wright "Bone Dry" Law,
R. C. Minton Says

PROVISIONS OF NEW ACT

Federal and Local Authorities Plan to Make State More Arid Than Ever in History

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—The rich man's private stock of choice liquor is endangered by the Wright "bone dry" law, according to the interpretation placed on the law today by R. C. Minton, assistant prohibition director for Indiana.

More possession of liquor, no matter in how small a quantity unless it is for sacramental purposes or is pure grain alcohol obtained under prescription, constitutes a violation of the law, Minton pointed out.

Minton declared this provision knocks out the defense offered by owners of private stocks of liquor that they bought it before prohibition.

Numerous wealthy citizens of Indianapolis and Indiana, whose homes have been raided and choice liquor seized, evaded conviction by proving they bought the liquor before prohibition became effective.

"The law does not contemplate that anyone has kept liquor since 1918," Minton said. "The old defense of rich men with a lot of brews in his cellar is a thing of the past."

Rigid enforcement of prohibition in Indiana under provisions of the Wright "bone dry" law were planned today by federal and local authorities.

The law, which became effective with Governor Jackson's proclamation, will make the state more arid than at any time in its history, is the opinion of dry agents.

"The new sections making it unlawful to purchase or possess intoxicating liquor will be highly effective in mopping up wet places," Bert Morgan, federal prohibition director for Indiana, said.

"Lists of customers of bootleggers will be evidence, since purchase of liquor carries a penalty. Provisions of the new law on the sale of liquor by druggists under the new law is the same as under the old law and no trouble is anticipated from that source."

Under the old law federal agents could raid a home only where there

YOUNG MAN FINDS THAT JUSTICE WORKS RAPIDLY

Edward Cox, 21, Taken to Reformatory Within 24 Hours After Attempting to Sell Stolen Corn

HAS BEEN IN COURT BEFORE

Edward Cox, age 21, found justice worked rapidly in the Rush circuit court, and today he is at Pendleton serving a term of one to eight years on a petit larceny charge.

Cox was arrested as he was attempting to sell some corn, and aroused suspicions of the officers, who detained him. Thomas Chambers, living south of Rushville, reported the theft of some corn, and when Cox was confronted with the charge, he admitted his guilt.

The theft took place Tuesday, according to the affidavit, and the sale was being made Wednesday when he was arrested. This morning when he was arraigned he pleaded guilty, and was taken at once to the reformatory at Pendleton to begin serving his sentence.

Cox has a record in the local court, having been convicted here once on a charge of encouraging delinquency of a minor, being implicated at the time with Mamie Wee and her brother.

PROBABLE TRIAL DATE IS SET

J. D. Williams and Four Others May be Tried Second Week in June

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—John D. Williams, director of the state highway commission, and four others under indictment on a charge of embezzlement in the disposal of war material by the highway body, probably will go to trial the second week in June.

This was announced today by Judge Collins in criminal court after a conference with attorneys for the indicted men. The attorneys asked for an immediate trial but Judge Collins had to refuse their request because eight murder cases and the case of D. C. Stephenson, charged with murder for the death of Miss Madge Oberholzer, are already docketed.

STEPHENSON KEEPS MOVES IN THE DARK

No Intimation of What Will Take Place When Bail Hearing Opens Friday in Indianapolis

BOTH HAVE LINES DRAWN

Believed Defense Will Contend Aversions of Indictment Insufficient to Warrant Charge

BULLETIN

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Appearing unexpectedly in criminal court this afternoon, Eph Imman, attorney for D. C. Stephenson, Earl Klenek and Earl Gentry, withdrew his plea to release the three men on bail, pending trial on a murder charge for the death of Miss Madge Oberholzer.

Imman gave no reason for his unexpected action and the motion to withdraw the bail plea was approved by Judge Collins.

Rumors had been current about the court house that one of Stephenson's aides had promised to turn state's evidence. Prosecutor Remy did not confirm the report.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—All moves were being kept in the dark today by the defense in the bail hearing of D. C. Stephenson and his two aides Earl Klenek and Earl Gentry charged with the murder of Miss Madge Oberholzer who took poison following an alleged attack.

Both state and defense had its lines drawn in readiness for the hearing which will open tomorrow before Judge James A. Collins in the Marion criminal court.

Eph Imman, attorney for the defense, refused to give any indication of the grounds upon which he will base his contention that the men should be admitted to bail.

It is believed, however, that he will contend the averments of the indictment are not sufficient to justify a first degree murder charge. It is believed he will also contend that the statement by Miss Oberholzer in which the indictments were based was made when she was in a poor physical and mental condition. According to Miss Oberholzer's story she was attacked by Stephenson on a sleeping car between Indianapolis and Hammond. Following the attack she took poison and the defendant refused her medical aid, she alleged.

A record crowd is expected at the hearings which is expected to continue more than one day at least.

FIRST PERFORMANCE TONIGHT

"The New Cood" Second Play of School Year by Seniors

The curtain will rise at eight o'clock tonight at the Graham Annex auditorium on the first performance of "The New Cood," the second play presented this school year by the seniors of Rushville high school. Spectators at rehearsals have been enthusiastic over the play and believe that a treat is in store for those who attend. It will be repeated Friday night.

About thirty seniors will take part in "The New Cood," which is a French royalty play in four acts. Coaching has been in charge of Miss Hamrick of the high school faculty and Mrs. Pauline Swain. Furniture and lamps to be used in the setting will be provided by George Todd. Plenty of good seats for either performance can be reserved at Pitman and Wilson's.

NO CHARGE TO BE MADE AGAINST WOMAN DRIVER

Mrs. Lowell Beach of Arlington
Makes Satisfactory Explanation
For Failing to Stop

MACHINE HIT SMALL BOY

Mrs. Lowell Beach of Arlington, driver of the machine which struck John Gantner age 6, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wingerter, was here Wednesday evening after being summoned by Police Chief Blackburn. No charges will be preferred against her, it is said.

The boy was attempting to cross the street when struck by the machine, and the driver failed to stop. The car was traced by the license number.

Mrs. Beach stated that she became frightened after striking the boy, and when she saw him get up and run away, she did not think that he was injured, and she continued to drive the machine, and did not stop. The boy was not seriously hurt, but suffered bruises and shock, and because the driver did not stop, a request was made to police to locate the woman. She was here Wednesday night at the Wingerter home, and made satisfactory explanations, it is said, and the matter is expected to be dropped.

Jennings' salary is $3,500 annually. For some time he was assistant securities director under the old law. He formerly lived in Newcastle.

CARTHAGE PLANT TO BE SOLD ON MAY 18

Petition Approved in Local Court and Similar Action Will be Taken in Federal Court

NUMBER OF BIDS EXPECTED

Proposal to Sell Will Not Interfere with Reorganizations, But Makes Bidding Competitive

A petition for permission to sell the plant of the American Paper Products company plant at Carthage, similar to one which has been approved in the Rush circuit court, was to be presented in the federal court in St. Louis today, and according to the best information here, it will be approved and nothing will stand in the way of plans to receive sealed bids for the real estate, buildings and machinery of the corporation, which is in receivership.

The receiver, John A. Tittsworth of Rushville and Ley P. Rexford of St. Louis, the latter having been appointed in federal court at St. Louis, because the concern is a St. Louis corporation, will receive sealed bids at one o'clock on May 18, and from day to day thereafter, providing the bid or bids are not acceptable, will offer the property at private sale.

The order to sell will not interfere with the organization plan of the creditors of the company, it is stated, but the Indiana law provides that property which has been in the hands of a receiver shall be sold, and this opens the way for competitive bidding.

The creditors who prepared a plan by which they hoped to bring the corporation out of its financial difficulties, will thus be thrown in competition with others which may want the plant.

It is reported that at least one other company will make a bid in accordance with the terms of the court order, so that there does not now seem to be any doubt about the future of the plant.

The Carthage works has three paper making machines with a capacity of approximately 100 tons of product per day and a practically new box board factory is operated in connection with the plant.

The buildings, real estate and equipment are valued at $1,500,000 and the machinery is in good running order, insuring immediate operation of the business if a satisfactory bid is received.

The principal debt of the company is a $400,000 mortgage, a suit to foreclose which was recently filed in the Rush circuit court. It is said that this suit will be withdrawn in order to permit a clear sale of the factory.

SLIGHT CLEW TO SOLVE MURDER AT CHESTERTON

Scrap of Paper and Upper Part of Woman's Stocking New Evidence
Police Have

GARY MAN RELEASED AGAIN

(By United Press)

Gary, Ind., April 30—A charred scrap of paper bearing the name H. Schmidt and the upper part of a woman's stocking were the only new clues in the hands of the police today to help them in their attempts to solve the Chesterton murder mystery.

The scrap of paper was found in the mud of the shore, some distance from where the dismembered and charred remains of the girl were found. The name was written in ink. The half of the stocking was found in a swamp lake near the scene of the tragedy which is still being dragged in the belief that it contains the legs and right arm torn from the torso.

The mangled body was found last Sunday and has since been veiled in deepest mystery. Thomas Sweeney of Gary has twice been taken into custody and twice released, the last time when his wife, who had disappeared, was fully accounted for. A woman's slipper, found nearby and a pair of spectacles, which police believe belonged to one of the murderers, are the only other clues on which police are working.

MOTHER'S SACRIFICE PROVES UNAVAILING

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Her sacrifices made in vain, Mrs. Oda Green returned to her home in Riley, Ind., to bury her son, Mayo, 18. In a last desperate effort to save the youth's life, the mother gave blood for a transfusion yesterday at the Methodist hospital, where he was dying from complication that developed after an appendicitis operation. The blood transfusion failed to aid him and he died a short time later.

Developing the Fullest Possibilities of the Four

If you will follow the new good Maxwell step by step through the great plants where it is built, you will quickly understand its extraordinary quality.

The new good Maxwell is manufactured almost to the smallest detail in Maxwell's own factories by an organization that has all the resources in mechanical equipment, scientific precision instruments, and trained man power to create superior qualities in any product it sponsors.

The new good Maxwell starts from the engineering department with a definite advantage—a design that is the result of a determined effort to develop as never before all the fullest possibilities of the four.

It is a design that is so far in advance of other fours that only in the new good Maxwell can you get a combination of 58 miles an hour, 5 to 25 miles in 8 seconds, gasoline economy of 25 miles to the gallon and riding qualities finer than any other four ever possessed.

Only with such superiority of design, and only with complete Maxwell manufacturing, can so much better four-cylinder motoring be sold at the new good Maxwell price. We are eager to demonstrate these values to you, so that you, too, will be numbered among the ever-growing army of contented Maxwell owners.

Touring Car, Roadster, Club Coupe, Club Sedan, Standard Four-Door Sedan—extensively priced from $885 to $1095. All prices f. o. b. Detroit, tax extra. We are pleased to extend the convenience of time payments. Ask about Maxwell's attractive plan. Maxwell dealers and superior Maxwell service everywhere.

PLEAS OF LENIENCY UNAVAILING

Judge Refuses to Lessen Sentence When Church Members Ask It

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Pleas of church members for Special Judge Johnson in city court here to lessen the sentence punishment of James Crane, 37, local attorney for larceny and obtaining money under false pretense went unheeded today.

Crane was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to one to seven years in the Indiana State farm.

He is alleged to have sold bogus mortgages to Adolph Strauss, here, which he claimed was on local property.

Subject For Study At Tonight's Prayer Meeting

The subject for study at the United Presbyterian church tonight is "The Spirit's Message to the Church at Ephesus." It is found in Rev. 2:1-7.

In this meeting the questions asked and the topics suggested are to come from the congregation and the pastor is expected to find the answer. Thus the subjects for discussion are: What are the first works that must be done? What is the first love which the pastor of the Ephesian Church had left? What is the "Tree of Life" referred to? And the "Golden Candlestick" what is it? Is the argument, in the case of "The Angel of this church," one that supports backsliding to the extent of falling from grace? Then one asks that the contract be drawn between the Ephesian church and the Church today.

Come with a question or a topic and be ready to give or to receive help; the pastor of the church urges. The meeting is at 7:30 o'clock.

"Let's Go to California"

Every day some tired, prosperous or otherwise travel-inclined man says to his wife, "Let's go to California!" And such is the power of advertising that, although neither of them may ever have proximately what it will cost, and where they will be there before, they know just how to go, ap want to stay.

The same with anything you may need or want. You already know all about it, by whom it is made, what it costs, and where it is for sale. Advertising in the afternoon papers is the modern intelligencer. It keeps you informed, advises you of new things, suggests new uses for articles you already own, and prepares you today for wise and useful purchases tomorrow.

It does all this for you, almost unconsciously, during the half-hour or so you spend each day with your newspaper. Little by little — the best and surest way to learn— advertising makes you informed of what is going on in the world that is useful to you.

Read the advertisements. Get ready for tomorrow

QUESTIONS FOR MAHENDRA MUST BE IN REPUBLICAN OFFICE FRIDAY P. M.

Mahendra, who is puzzling the people of this community by answering all sorts of questions about the past, present and future, today gave written replies to a number of inquiries that were received by the Daily Republican. A large number of questions were received during the day and they will be answered in Friday's edition.

Mahendra is giving citizens of Rushville and vicinity an opportunity to clear up in their minds things that have mystified them in the past, or that which is worrying them now. He also answers perplexing problems of the future.

Have you lost anything? Do you expect money? Do you want to hear from lost relatives? Do you want to know if your sale of property will be successful? Ask Mahendra, either through the columns of the Daily Republican or at the Castle theatre, where he is appearing each night.

The Daily Republican does not guarantee the accuracy of answers given by Mahendra, but is giving readers an opportunity to seek a solution to their problems if they desire to.

All questions to be answered through the Daily Republican must be in the office by Friday afternoon. None will be answered after that time. A special matinee for women only will be given Friday. Answers to questions submitted today are as follows:

F. B.—Will I consider a business career?

Ans.—A business career would be most successful for you and you are inclined to consider such a course, even this year. I am of the opinion that marriage will interfere with your plans.

W. K.—You are asking if you will ever go with the one you are thinking of. If her initials are M. B. I am quite sure you will and very soon.

Mrs. L. A. S.—How long will my husband remain at his present position.

Ans.—Until this fall. He will go into business shortly after the first of the year. There will be a partner in the enterprise.

W. R.—You are asking if you will succeed with your intended vocation. Yes, but you are apt to be inclined to change your plans this summer. I would avoid doing so.

F. H. A.—I can not tell you the name of the party who robbed your home as there is not enough evidence to convict the person.

G. W.—You will be most successful in following the vocation you have been considering.

E. M. E.—Can you locate my lost gloves?

Ans.—I am of the opinion that you left them in Indianapolis while you were shopping last week. Inquire of the lady at the yard goods counter where you were considering a purchase. I believe she will remember you and help you to recover them.

B. M. B.—The uncle that you are looking for is in Los Angeles, California. I do not see a marriage for you within the next two years.

R. C.—You are worried about your present position. I am quite sure your employer appreciates your efforts more than you think. You will meet with success and an advancement is in store for you this fall. You will take a vacation trip to Michigan this fall.

LEGION TO HOLD 6TH ANNUAL MEET

Members of Legion to be Guests of Culver Military Academy at Conference Saturday and Sunday

PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Saturday Afternoon Will be Devoted to Recreation With Academy Facilities at Disposal

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 29—The program for the sixth annual conference of the Indiana department of the American Legion at Culver Military Academy next Saturday and Sunday was announced today by Frank H. Henley, adjutant of the department.

Members of the Legion who attended the conference will be guests of the Academy, which has entertained this conference annually since 1920, the next year after the state department was organized.

James A. Drain, the national commander, will attend the Sunday session and will address the meeting in the afternoon. On Saturday night the junior boxing championships of the Indiana-Kentucky A. A. U. are to be held at the Academy and the visitors will be special guests.

Saturday afternoon will be largely devoted to recreation and sports, with all the facilities of the Academy at the disposal of the veterans. The mounts of the Black Horse Troop will be available for the ex-cavalrymen and others who wish to take a gallop.

The "go-bus" will have an opportunity to get back on the bounding main by embarking on an excursion party on Lake Maxinkuckee, the outters and wherries of the Culver Summer Naval School fleet serving as men-o-war. Tennis, golf, swimming and baseball are also on the program.

The conference will open at 11 o'clock Saturday morning with a message of welcome by Brig. Gen. L. R. Gignallat, superintendent of the Academy and a past state commander. Sunday afternoon the Legionnaires will place a wreath in the Culver alumni memorial and witness exhibition drills and a dress parade by the Culver corps of cadets.

LOOKING FORWARD TO NEXT YEAR'S ELECTION

Election of Republican Senators and House Members is of Paramount Importance

URGE USE OF COMMON SENSE

(Special to The Daily Republican)

Washington, April 30—The Coolidge administration is looking forward to next year's senatorial and congressional election with special interest. The election of Republican Senators and House members is recognized as of paramount importance to the administration. Nothing would be so embarrassing to the success of President Coolidge's administration as the election of a Congress of the opposite political faith.

Common sense, it is urged, calls for the election of Senators and House members of the same political party as that of the President. The fact that the Democratic party is overrun with strife and bitterness is one reason that the Republicans should carry the 1926 congressional and senatorial elections. The big reason the Republicans should win is that the people have faith in Coolidge and would not want to do anything that would embarrass his administration, for it is recognized that the success of the administration is good for everybody.

Naturally, the administration has a special interest in the political fortunes of Senator Curtis, Kansas, the Republican floor leader; Senator Watson, Indiana, assistant leader and chairman of one of the most important committees, and Senator Butler, Massachusetts, chairman of the Republican national campaign and hailing from the President's home state. Since these three senators are among the most conspicuous leaders and supporters of Coolidge policies, their failure to be elected would be interpreted as a slap at the President. It is taken for granted that all three will be nominated without opposition.

was evidence of a sale. With the Wright law in effect they can enter to get evidence of possession provided they are accompanied by state officers or if they are deputized as constables.

Under the Wright law any one carrying liquor in his pocket may be searched if there is evidence apparent that the liquor is there.

Morgan said the prohibition department does not plan a wholesale invasion of homes but that careful investigation will be made before search warrants are taken out for a raid.

In Indianapolis police and detectives propose to enforce the new law to the letter.

"The Wright law will make the task of prohibition enforcement easier," Captain Paulsen said.

Could she earn her own living?

SHE'S your daughter—and perhaps you have no thought of her having to work for a living.

But this sort of thing does happen in very nice families—and too often the girl is utterly unprepared for any well-paid occupation. So she takes a poorly paid job as sales girl, waitress or clerk.

It's different when there is a Corona in the home. A child who has learned to use Corona from with its standard office typewriter, can operate any office machine—and you've provided her with the best kind of an insurance policy against the day when she may be forced to support herself.

The price of Corona Four is $60 cash. Many terms arranged if desired. Call or phone for a demonstration.

The "Bone Dry" Law

Indiana now has a "bone dry" law. It became effective with the proclamation of Governor Jackson declaring in effect all laws passed by the last legislature which did not contain an emergency clause.

This law provides the implements by means of which liquor can be outlawed in Indiana, but it will not enforce itself. It may well never have been passed if peace officers do not study its provisions and learn what powers they have under its terms.

All of the laws in the world are not going to correct the conditions at which they are aimed, if the enforcement officers do not endeavor to see that violators are brought to book.

Under the new law, officers may raid a place to get evidence of the unlawful possession of liquor if they have reason to believe the law is being violated. The old law provided they could enter a home only where there was evidence of a sale. It would be improper, of course, for officers to carry on wholesale raiding of homes, but an officer of the law should have some very good ideas about places where liquor is probably kept.

The Wright "bone dry" law also makes the purchaser of liquor equally guilty with the seller, which should have some effect in reducing the sale of liquor.

Keep Up The Morale

We have had a clean-up week in Rushville. That does not signify that cleaning should be confined to one week. It should go on and on all summer for cleaning is a progressive movement.

A lie and a promise, the winter's collection of debris hauled away, and then complacently forgetting all about it—that is not a spring clean-up in any sense of the word.

If the morale of the home owner weakens, if the maintenance of spot and span premises is neglected, the one week's spring clean-up is little less than worthless.

While nature is putting on her summer clothes is the proper time to get in the best work, but any withdrawal from a standard set during

New England Thoroughness

A New England man with an idea has been a main factor in growth of Los Angeles. A. G. Arnoll, secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, went to that organization from New England. He deliberately set out to secure industries for Southern California. Coming from an industrial section of the country, he realized that payrolls were the rock foundation upon which to build permanent community prosperity.

His ideas have borne fruit. In a little over three years 4,000 new industries have been located in Los Angeles. His systematic program to encourage industrial development can be followed by any city which seeks permanent growth and prosperity. But it takes work and lots of it as can be testified to by Mr. Arnoll and his corps of assistants who keep in constant touch with thousands of prospective industries over the world which they try to interest in coming to Southern California.

WASHINGTON—Washington isn't exactly a vicious city. That is to say, it isn't tough, in the sense that Chicago is tough. It isn't hard and cruel like New York. It isn't desperate and dangerous like San Francisco. Outside the prohibition enforcement service, the thing doesn't flourish here. And yet it can't be said that Washington is good.

It undoubtedly is the most responsible city in the country. Not that it means anything very wrong. It simply doesn't care. Nearly everybody here is away from home, with little or nothing to do, and interested almost exclusively in having a good time. There are ideal conditions for Satan's purposes and he makes the most of them.

WHAT'S become of the Scott divorce case at Alpena, Mich.? The testimony in the case told the story of life in Washington with beautiful accuracy. Not everybody's life, of course. But it was very characteristic of the "smart set," which, in proportion to Washington's population, is about ten times the size of any other American city's "smart set." There isn't much depth to its moral turpitude—just the whole outfit bent on fun and excitement, and the devil take the consequences! This isn't assuming that Congressman Scott did all the things his wife said he did, or that his complaints of Mrs. Scott's seductions were well founded. Only two versions did sound as like Washington.

BUT anyway what's become of the Scott case? Washington was enjoying it immensely when they finished the first reel, and it might be anxious to see the second one start. What Washington's afraid of is that there won't be any second one.

However, that statement that Washington was enjoying it needs to be qualified a little. Not quite all Washington's Washingtonians whose names were mentioned didn't like it a bit. And when Mrs. Scott announced she wasn't half

EBBETTS' ESTATE TO SELL

Col. Huston, Half Owner of Yankees,
and George M. Cohan Among Probable Purchasers

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 30—Brooklyn's new National League franchise, the most valuable in the league next to the Giants, probably will be sold as the result of the death of Edward McKeever, the second president of the club to die within two weeks.

Stephen McKeever, who held a half interest in the club with his brother, is now the only living owner and he is 71 years old. It is very doubtful that he will care to assume the responsibilities of an owner as he has been little more than a silent partner in the business.

Following the death of Charles H. Ebbetts, it was reported that the McKeever brothers would buy his holdings in the club and become the sole owners. It is understood now that the Ebbetts estate cannot take over the other half interest in the team and that it will be sold.

Many prominent New York sportsmen have been mentioned as probable purchasers.

Some time ago it was reported that Col. T. L. Huston, former half owner of the New York Yankees was willing to buy the franchise but Ebbetts refused to consider any offer. When Huston left the Yankees the terms of sale to Col. Jake Ruppert were said to bind Huston to a promise not to become interested in another New York club. This may have applied only to the Giants however.

Col. Huston, if he should take over the Brooklyn club, probably would give an interest to Wilbert Robinson, manager of the club, who has been his bosom friend for years. George M. Cohan, prominent theatrical man and a great baseball fan is also being mentioned as a purchaser. He has been wanting to get into baseball for years and now has the opportunity as his theatrical activities have been curtailed greatly.

George M. Loft, millionaire candy manufacturer and a member of the state racing commission is said to be looking for a baseball club and he could find no better investment than the Brooklyn club.

Since 1918 the owners of the Brooklyn team have made a small fortune. The team has patronage almost as good as the New York Giants and the property upon the ball field is located in one of the most valuable in the residential section of Flatbush. It was reported after the death of Ebbetts that the McKeever brothers were looking for another site for a new and larger park, and that they would tear down the stadium and sell the ground for building purposes.

New York—Continued improvement in the condition of Babe Ruth was reported at St. Vincent's hospital today. It is not known positively when he will be discharged, but officials of the Yankees practically have given up hope of having him in the lineup on the first western trip.

Sox Fans Greet Eddie

Eddie Collins, veteran American League player and manager of the Chicago White Sox, was given a royal welcome by his admirers at the opening game in the Windy City the other day. Eddie was presented with a large chest of silver and a big floral horseshoe, the emblem of good luck. Commissioner Landis, shown to the right of Collins, and various Chicago city dignitaries attended the festivities.

May Amend Amateur Rules

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 30—That old amateur question, which has been causing such a rumpus in tennis circles for a year or more will bob up next month to bother track and field sports when the International Olympic Committee meets at Prague.

Since Sweden has admitted its willingness to compensate amateur athletes for the time they lose from their regular occupations while they are competing in amateur meets, the international committee has been preparing for the discussion of a subject that will have much to do with the future of athletics.

By insisting that there is only one way to be an amateur, the American delegates will open themselves to charges that they are speaking from a fat pocketbook and not from a pure athletic heart. Foreign athletes have felt that all the American boys are rich and that even a workman can go to his boss with:

"I made the Olympic team and I'm going to be gone for two months. Send half my pay-check to me and keep the rest until I come back."

Such a condition of affairs is silly however, as every one knows in this country. Several instances have happened where employees refused to grant a leave of absence even without pay to athletes in their employ who could have made the Olympic team.

There were also Dick Landon, the former Olympic high-jump champion and Willie Plant, one of the world's greatest walkers, who declined an appointment on the Olympic team last summer because they couldn't afford to make the trip. They were sure point-winners, but they were left at home. There is no case on record where sure point-winners were left at home by foreign teams for any reason.

The suggestion that a differentiation might be made between a professional in one sport and an amateur in another has been made in this country before, and it was turned down with very little consideration.

College athletic officials have been struggling for years to correct what is generally admitted to be a general practice of college baseball players to cheat a little by playing summer baseball. It was suggested by some of the liberals that it would not be wrong for a college athlete to be a professional baseball player and an amateur football player. But nothing came of it, excepting some ridicule.

As far as is known, the American Olympic teams in 1920 and 1924 have been as purely amateur as a human agency could make them.

CLOSED SEASON ON BLACK BASS AND BLUEGILLS MAY 1

Will be Unlawful to Fish for These Species Until June 16, G. N.
Mannfeld Announces

THE REPRODUCTIVE PERIOD

—OF BASS, "PUT" SPOONING
Thursday is the last day for the unlawful fishing for black bass and bluegills in Indiana waters as the closed season on these species starts May 1 and will not open again until June 16.

Under Indiana laws protecting these species it is unlawful to catch, kill or pursue or to have any black bass or bluegills in one's possession during the closed season.

The object of this law, George N. Mannfeld, chief of the fisheries and game division of the state conservation department, explains, is to protect these species during the nesting or reproductive period and not leave the eggs or fry unprotected by catching the parent fish. The Hoosier public is now pretty generally cognizant of the importance of the closed season and in the last year or so many persons have cooperated with the conservation department to enforce this law, the result being that the state's public waters teem with game fish. This condition brings considerable wealth to the state from out-state fishermen who enjoy regular visits to our fishing grounds.

SANITARY CONDITIONS GOOD

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30—Sanitary conditions throughout the tornado area in the "pocket" of southwestern Indiana, are generally satisfactory. Albert Wert, investigator of the state board of health, reported to Dr. William F. King, secretary of the board today. Wert was assigned to make a survey of the condition as a precautionary measure against disease epidemic.

New Standard Six Coach

[with full-size balloon tires]

STUDEBAKER has $60,000,000 invested in plants in which Studebaker cars are manufactured complete, including all bodies, both open and closed. No other large automobile manufacturer that we know of makes all of his own bodies.

This means that Studebaker saves the profit of outside parts makers and body-builders. Thus the price of this new coach is not burdened by an extra profit. At $1295 it represents a value no other automobile manufacturer can equal.

And no other manufacturer can offer a coach of such fine quality at the price. For every coach that Studebaker builds carries with it traditions of fine craftsmanship that have existed in Studebaker plants since 1852.

Compare this coach with other cars which sell at much higher prices. This will prove that Studebaker values are unequaled.

Twenty of these tractors were put to work April 1.

Decatur—Considerable agitation has been started here for the establishments of a city heating plant.

My Platform

ABSOLUTE LAW ENFORCEMENT—I promise the citizens of Rushville that I will enforce all laws so long as they are on the Statute Books and that in so far as it is within my power, I will see that officers are appointed who will, without fear or favor, enforce the law.

MAINTAIN WATER & LIGHT PLANT—I promise to maintain the Water and Light Plant as a City owned plant, with rates as low as is consistent with the service given and the proper operation of the plant, and to fight any attempt of any person to do away with the plant as a city plant and sell it to private individuals.

CITY & COMMUNITY PROGRESS—I promise to do all within my power, consistent with the best interests of the good people of Rushville, to further the growth of this city, to bring new industries here and to develop present industries, to the end that Rushville may become the thriving city that it should be.

TAXES—I promise that I will personally investigate each and every proposal which would increase taxes, and oppose those that are not absolutely necessary for the benefit of the city, and to see that taxes collected, are properly expended, and that the citizens of Rushville receive full value for every dollar of their money so expended and to see that taxes are, at all times, kept to the lowest possible limit.

Conquer That Cold

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 211

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

The insidious working of a "common cold" is its most dangerous aspect. A cold is bad enough — worse is the apprehension as to how it may develop, since influenza, bronchitis, coughs and even tuberculosis are possibilities in the background.

The reason for this is that a "cold" is not properly a dis-ease or an illness, but a premonitory symptom of a run-down condition—a warning that a deadly draught is brewing within the laboratory of the body.

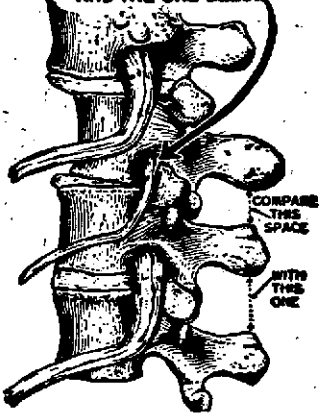

This can happen only when the physical structure is out of normal condition. Specifically — a spinal segment is pressing upon a nerve; the nerve is failing to deliver vital energy to its destination and trouble is in the making.

There is one right way to rectify this condition and that is by making use of our Health Service.

Tuberculosis Threatens; Chiropractic Corrects;

"About six weeks ago I took a heavy cold which gradually grew worse until within a month it developed into a bad case of the grip and pleurisy and there was danger of tuberculosis. Under medicine I kept getting worse until I was advised to see a Chiropractor. Under skillful adjustments I immediately commenced to improve and within a few days was able to go to work. I kept on improving until now, two weeks later, I am entirely well." — Howard Luck, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 2101-N.

FINAL CHAPTER IN GARY BOOZE CASE

Five Former City Officials and Attorneys of City Surrendered to U. S. Marshal

SENTENCED TO PRISON

Twenty-Six Others Were to Report to Marshall and Begin Their Terms in County Jail

Indianapolis, April 30—The final chapter has been written in the Gary booze conspiracy case, one of the most sensational cases that has been heard in federal district court here in recent years.

Five former city officials and attorneys of Gary surrendered to the United States marshal and started to the federal prison in Atlanta, where they will serve sentences of from one year to eighteen months imprisonment.

Twenty-six others reported to the marshal during the day and began their terms of from thirty days to six months in the Marion county jail.

The prisoners taken to Atlanta were Roswell O. Johnson, former mayor, Dwight Kinder and Clyde Hunter, former prosecutors of Lake county, L. E. Barnes, former president of the Gary board of works, and Blaz Lucas, an attorney.

Johnson will do eighteen months in Atlanta. The others will serve a year and a day.

Along with eleven others, the thirty-one who started their terms were convicted in federal court in April, 1923, of participation in a gigantic conspiracy to defeat the national prohibition laws in Lake county and Gary.

Litigation in the case was ended this month, when the United States supreme court overruled the appeals of the last of the thirty-one who carried their fight to the higher courts.

GUARD INCREASED AT HINDENBURG'S VILLA

Precautions Taken Following Rumors of Attempt to Assassinate the Field Marshal

DENIAL OF PLOT IS MADE

(By United Press)

Berlin, April 30—Police guards were increased today around President-elect Hindenburg's villa at Hanover giving rise to rumors of an attempt to assassinate the field marshal.

Emphatic denial of knowledge of any plot was made at police headquarters where it was said the additional guards were to assist in keeping off enthusiastic demonstrators.

Chancellor Luther, who conferred with Hindenburg on "important matters of state" yesterday, announced this afternoon that the government's foreign policy would remain unchanged and that he would continue efforts to bring about a safety pact with the allies.

Pursuing their policy of endeavoring to stir up the workers against Hindenburg, the German communists today issued a proclamation, calling upon all to quit work in factories and shops Friday-May day.

The proclamation reiterated yesterday's demands, but apparently the communists are attempting to profit by a well established continental custom. They call upon the workers to take Friday off, as a protest against the "Hindenburg evening. Covers were laid for Miss Ruth Buck of Lake Charles, La., Howard and Franklin Hushaw of Dunreith and Miss Fern McBride.

STATE'S WATER RATE BELOW NATION'S RATE

Statement Made in Survey Reported Before American Water Works Association Meeting

BASED UPON QUESTIONNAIRES

Louisville, Ky., April 30—The average water rate in Indiana is below that of the nation.

This statement was made in a survey reported today before the American Water Works association in convention here by George W. Fuller of New York city.

Fuller made his report as chairman of the standardization council of the association and based it upon questionnaires sent to all water companies or departments in cities of 15,000 or over. Replies were received from 294 cities.

The national average rate—a thousand gallons for the first 7,500 gallons a month is twenty-six cents while the Indiana average is 25.4 cents.

Large industrial users of water in Indiana fare better than large users elsewhere, the report stated.

A million gallons of water outside Indiana on an average, costs $121.03, whereas hotels and factories in Indiana buy the same supply for $109.11.

Sullivan—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dudley of Sullivan, arriving here from Los Angeles, reported that, while passing through Missouri, an infuriated horse crashed into their automobile, almost knocked it off the road and caused considerable damage.

"The Hill Billy" is a tonic for the jaded motion picture appetite. It is a simple story of a simple day that will stick with audiences as long as motion pictures are shown.

Jack Pickford has come back as the rugged, yet dominant boy of the Kentucky hills. Garbed in his tattered mountain-boy clothing he is the daring, adventuresome, lovable youth of the backwoods.

There aren't any risqué situations, or suggestive episodes in Jack's latest Allied Producers and Distributors' Corporation release. It is a picture of the great American out-of-doors. The characters are real and genuine. Lucille Rickson, who supports Jack, as Emmy Lou, is the sweet and demure maid of the hills who brings romance into the life of a lonesome boy. Miss Rickson, who is famed as Hollywood's youngest leading woman, rises to the height of her dramatic pinnacle in this picture.

Doris Kenyon at Princess

Endless days and nights of steady rain; a tropical fever that racks the body and befuddles the mind—would all this be enough to kill the spark of love of a husband for his wife? This interesting situation arises in "If I Marry Again," which will be the First National attraction at the Princess theatre today. The story concerns a young man who is sent to a tropical isle by his father because of his marriage to an "undesirable" girl, in the hope that his love will die and that he will return to his father. Doris Kenyon, Anna Q. Nilsson, Lloyd Hughes and Hobart Bosworth are in the cast.

Alexandria—Authorities here have declared war on unlicensed dogs. Thirty carcasses of dogs shot while roaming the streets were burned last week.

AFTER BABY WAS BORN

Mrs. Miles Was Miserable a Long Time—Owes Final Recovery to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dover, Ohio.—"After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had washed a heavy carpet and I think that was the cause of my troubles. I went to several doctors, but their medicines did not do me any good. I asked what the trouble was, for I could hardly walk and always had such pains in my left side and then in my right side. He told me I had inflammation that caused it. I had one of your text-books and was reading it, and I thought I would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After four days of taking it I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That helped me more than any other medicine I had yet taken and I always have it handy now. It surely did put me on my feet again."—Mrs. JAMES MILES, 419 Cherry Street, Dover, Ohio.
